

DPT Monthly Newsletter

Dear Neighbors,

Dunwoody Preservation Trust is excited to publish our first ever e-newsletter! We hope you enjoy our new format for sharing the happenings at our organization, as well as information about our upcoming events and celebrations. Also, be sure to check out our new website!

Sincerely,
Suzanne Huff
Executive Director

Visit our Website

DPT Announces Inaugural Volunteer Hall of Fame

At an award ceremony at its recent annual board meeting open to all members, the directors of the Dunwoody Preservation Trust (DPT) inducted the inaugural members of its new Volunteer Hall of Fame: DPT founders Lynne Byrd and Joyce Amacher (in memoriam, with her son Zach Amacher accepting on her behalf) and co-presidents Danny and Queenie Ross, who followed them and were responsible for laying the foundation of the organization.

Afternoon Tea Party on Sunday,
March 1, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00
p.m.

Help us celebrate 150 years of the Donaldson-Bannister Farm with an afternoon tea. World-renowned Judith McLoughlin will be joining us to share her knowledge of the history of teas and tea etiquette. Purchase tickets now!

Summer Camp

Registration for Camp Flashback is now underway. Don't miss the chance to have fun at Dunwoody's only authentic history camp this summer. Find out more and register at:

www.campflashback.org

Lemonade Days is Coming!

Lemonade Days 2020 is April 22-26

Sponsorships are still available. A sponsorship is an investment not only in the Dunwoody Preservation Trust but also in our community and your business.

Be a Sponsor

Visit our website

Sponsored by Friends of the Farm