Happy New Year!

Happy New Year!

We have so much to look forward to in 2022 from History Alive to Lemonade Days to Camp Flashback and more. You can find event details in our monthly newsletters as well as on our website.

On January 15, please join us for our first History Alive speaker, Jeffrey Morrison, author of Atlanta Underground. Dates for Camp Flashback are June 13 - July 22 and registration opened on January 1. As a reminder, camp is not in session the week of July 4. Lemonade Days is back on track and is scheduled for April 20-24 at Brook Run Park. DPT's Afternoon

Tea is scheduled at the Donaldson-Bannister Farm on May 15 at 2:00PM.

As I close out my term as DPT President, I would like to thank you all for your continued support of our mission. Operating under Covid made our work more challenging but not impossible. During my two-year term, we continued to grow by adding additional events and programming. We look forward to opening our history museum and research center in the near future.

I look forward to seeing you at the Farm and at our events. Together let's Celebrate the Past, Honor the Present, and Build for the Future!

MJ Thomas
DPT President

Donaldson-Bannister Farm Best of Georgia Award

The Dunwoody Preservation Trust is proud to announce that the Donaldson-Bannister Farm was named Best of Georgia 2021 award winner for the best Meeting & Event Facilities by the Georgia Business Journal.

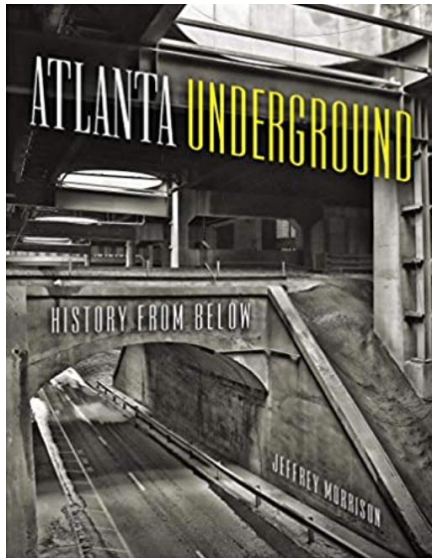

If you are looking for the perfect place to host a party or event, there's only one historic venue in Dunwoody, the historic Donaldson-Bannister Farm. In addition to our beautiful farmhouse and grounds, we have a 40'x40' gable-style tent to cover the pavilion at the barn, which makes us able to host larger, socially distanced events.

History Alive Saturday, January 15, 9:30 - 11:00am

We have a great History Alive program coming your way in 2022!

Join us for our next presentation on Saturday, January 15, from 9:30-11:00am and hear from the author of Atlanta Underground, Jeffrey Morrison.

Atlanta Underground will present a city history through the lens of its buried and paved-over urban landscape. Clues and paved-over evidence of the original streetscape are still accessible, but only to those who know where to look. The rapid growth and change of Atlanta's many lives has led to some downright interesting hidden locations and architectural curiosities, and Atlanta Underground will reveal them one by one.

To be held at the Donaldson-Bannister Farm
4831 Chamblee-Dunwoody Road, Dunwoody, GA 30338

$5 for DPT members, $10 for non-DPT members

No reservations are required.

Masks are required.

Membership

Membership is critical to the success and longevity of DPT. Without membership support, it would be challenging to meet our mission:

Dunwoody Preservation Trust (DPT) is dedicated to preserving the history and heritage of Dunwoody. DPT encourages and inspires the exploration of Dunwoody's history through educational programs, publications, collections and research. Our programs celebrate the past, honor the present and build for the future to give Dunwoody a strong sense of historical place.

If you are not already a member of DPT, please consider joining today. We have several membership packages and one is certain to meet your needs. With membership you will receive: the monthly newsletter, The DPT Dispatch, early registration and member pricing for events held at the Donaldson-Bannister Farm.
