

DPT Monthly Newsletter

Last month, we shared that COVID-19 had forced us to cancel our beloved Lemonade Days, Dunwoody's premier community festival and our #1 source of funding, and asked you to help us make up some of what we had lost. Thank you so much to all of you who have donated! Your donations go to support our ongoing efforts during these trying times and allow us to continue our mission of preserving Dunwoody's historic properties, history and quality of life through education, celebrations and advocacy. The loss of Lemonade Days was devastating, but your donations have made all the difference. Thank you for helping us make lemonade out of lemons!

Our gift to you - the chance to win an all-expenses paid catered dinner at "the farm"

When we asked you to help us replace the operating funds we had lost by canceling Lemonade Days, we had no idea what to expect, and you really stepped up. To thank you for your generosity, we are offering you the unique opportunity to host at our expense a catered dinner at our historic 1870s Donaldson-Bannister Farm.

It's a drawing – and all you have to do to enter is donate.

For every $100 you donate until midnight on September 16, including what you have already donated since our campaign began, we will enter a raffle ticket in your name for a drawing to be held on September 18 and live-streamed on Facebook. The prize is an evening at the farm for a group of up to 10 people with an estimated value of $3,500.

Invite your friends and family and leave the rest to us.

After 56 events, we know how to host a party your guests will long remember. We will also provide all required sanitation required by CDC guidelines at the time of your event, including the space to socially distance. If you've already donated at least $100, you already have at least one raffle ticket. Every $100 more is another chance to win this totally unique opportunity.

Just remember the deadline. You must complete your donations by midnight on September 16.

Farm to Table Dinner & Bluegrass

Join us for our 2nd annual Farm to Table Dinner! Due to COVID-19, this year the event will be held over two nights for social distancing. Choose either Friday, October 2, or Saturday, October 3, from 6-9 pm. Enjoy a delicious meal at the Donaldson-Bannister Farm and listen to the sounds of Sojourner, a local Bluegrass band. The evening will feature:

- Four-course meal prepared by: Chef/General Manager Christopher McDonald and Chef Robert McIntyre, both of Marlowe's Tavern Dunwoody.
- Food provided by: Joyce Farms, Sweet Grass Dairy, Stone Creek Hydroponics, Southern Valley Farms and D&T Farms.
- Cash bar available (one drink ticket is included in the price)
- Tickets are sold as tables of 4, 6 or 8 and will be spaced according to state guidelines. So please put your group together and register as one table. ($80 per person)

New Yoga Offerings

Beginning Friday, September 4, we will have 2 additional yoga classes at the Farm! Mommy and Me yoga will be 9 - 9:45 am on Friday, and Senior Stretch will be 10 - 10:45 am on Friday as well. The price is still $10 each (cash only) with half as a donation to Dunwoody Preservation Trust. No prior reservations needed. We still have our regular yoga classes on Monday & Thursday evening and Saturday morning.

DPT is a Georgia Humanities Grant Recipient

Dunwoody Preservation Trust was recently named a recipient of CARES Act funds through a grant from the Georgia Humanities and National Endowments for Humanities. Amidst the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, funding such as this helps us keep our programming going. We are so very grateful!
